FACTS

WHAT DOES COMMUNITY BANK DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?
Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?
The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:
- Social Security number and account balances
- Payment history and credit history
- Checking account information and wire transfer instructions
When you are no longer our customer, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.

How?
All financial companies need to share customers’ personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers’ personal information; the reasons Community Bank chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

| How does Community Bank collect my personal information?           | We collect your personal information, for example, when you
  - Open an account or apply for a loan
  - Provide employment information or provide account information
  - Show your driver's license
  We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies. |
| Why can't I limit all sharing?                                      | Federal law gives you the right to limit only
  - sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes - information about your creditworthiness
  - affiliates from using your information to market to you
  - sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you
  State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. |
