

Community Bank Announces $1000 Photo Contest Winner

For Immediate Release

July 20, 2015

Community Bank's "Traveling HAMilton Photo Contest" ran in April, May and June and involved taking and entering a photo of HAMilton, the Community Bank pink piggy bank, on an adventure. Each week was a new Facebook voting period between that week's top ten submitted images, where the image with the most votes won the photographer $100. After nine weeks, the finalists competed to get the most Facebook votes and to win $1000. Jordann Roberts, a recent EOU graduate from Union, Oregon, was the grand prize winner with 815 votes.

The grand prize winnings were distributed to Jordann as "Hamiltons" (ten dollar bills with Alexander Hamilton's face). Roberts and runner up Carrie Stratton of Nampa, Idaho (with 811 votes), had agreed to split the winnings regardless of who ended up with the most votes. They decided to donate a portion of the money to a charity of their choice. Carrie will be donating a portion to Shelter from the Storm and Jordann will be donating to the local animal shelter.

Jordann is a 2015 graduate from Eastern Oregon University where she received her degree in Elementary Studies.
